HERE AND THERE.

Col. L. A. Spert has moved into the Edwards house on East 7th street.

The Minstrel company which showed here Monday night was very poor.

A little daughter of Mr. J. E. Carter died of brain fever last Tuesday night.

Two base ball clubs will be organized in the city about the first of March.

A brand new 6 drawer sewing machine for sale at a sacrifice. Apply at this office.

Dr. Wm. M. Fuqua has moved to the Davis house on North Main street, beyond the river.

Several imported beggars were working the town this week, some of them being able-bodied men.

W. E. Phillips has bought the right for the sale of the Reblinmer patent fence in Trigg and Todd counties.

The young people of Pee Dee assembled at Mr. E. D. Moss' Monday night and indulged in dancing until a late hour.

Mr. H. M. Davis sold his house and lot on Jessup Avenue, Wednesday, to Mr. T. C. Cary for $1,100 cash. Mr. Davis speaks of moving to California to live.

Jackson Moorman, a well-known quadroneer, who was for several seasons employed as porter at Cornwell Springs, died at his home in this city last Saturday.

Tobacco is still selling very low and it is useless to attempt to disguise the fact. It is low everywhere. The prices here compare favorably with those of the very best markets.

Forbes & Bro's, planingmill, which had been stopped for a few days while some repairs were being made, resumed business Wednesday and is now running with a full head of steam.

We acknowledge the receipt of complimentary letters to the entertainment to be given at Henderson's to-night by the Mozart Society, a society composed of home talent. Our young friend Starling Marshall, of the Journal, is leading man in the comic opera "Marguerite," which concludes the evening's exercises. We are sorry we cannot be on hand.

The jury in the cases of White and McElroy against the L. A. & T. railroad gave Mr. White $350 damages last Friday instead of $196 allowed by the commission and the Messrs. McElroy $700 instead of $694. These sums were less than the gentlemen desired for the condemned right of way, but we have not learned whether they will offer further resistance to the building of the road.

Coal thieves are permitted to ply their avocation unmolested, simply because the city cannot afford to board a lot of lazy coons for nothing. It is frequently the case that they steal before the eyes of the watchmen and court of defy arrest, in broad daylight. A work house would help matters some, but the great need of the hour is an old-fashioned whip-plug-pot to regulate the morals of such cattle.

Henry Lencave, a young married man of this county, who came from Montgomery county, Tenn., the first of the year, was arrested in this county last Saturday and is now in jail at Clarksville charged with seducing a 15-year-old feeble-minded daughter of Cave Clark last June. Lencave was married last August, his wife being a Miss Pearce, a most estimable and excellent young lady of Montgomery county.

"Helen Lakeman" will be concluded next Friday and will be followed by another serial equally as interesting, but of an entirely different character. It will be called "The Adventure of Tad" and the very name suggests the rollicking vein of humor that runs throughout the story. It is written in the very best style, is profusely illustrated and is thrillingly interesting from the very first chapter. It will begin about the first of March, unless some unavoidable delay should occur in getting it ready.

Colia Oates, the col. woman arrested at Crofton charged with the murder of her newly born infant, was tried before Judge Anderson Tuesday. Her statement was that the child was born dead and that she buried it in a hole in the ground, from which it was rooted up by the hogs, which were devouring it when it was discovered. On her statement she was held over under a bond of $100 till the next grand jury meets. She was released on her own recognizance. There are no witnesses against her and it is doubtful if a case can be made out. The accused is a dark brown, thick lipped young woman, apparently about 25 years old.

The "Old Reliable" firm of M. Frankel & Sons insert a large advertisement in this issue from which it will be seen that they are offering great bargains in clothing for the next 30 days. This firm is one of the oldest and strongest in the city and is at present occupying the two large rooms at 13 and 15 South Main street. In one department they handle dry goods proper and in the other clothing and gent's furnishings goods. The head of the firm, Mr. M. Frankel, resides in Cincinnati, where he is ever ready to take advantage of favorable opportunities to replenish his stock. Messrs. Joo, Henry and Sam, the sons, are all excellent business men, clever and popular and enjoy the confidence of the public in their business transactions. For particulars of the great bargains they are now offering their customers see their big advertisement in this issue.

SOCIALITIES.

Walton Bryan spent Sunday in Clarksville.

Miss Ella Pratt, of Madisonville returned home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Henry, of Newstead, were in town yesterday.

Mr. A. P. Smith returned from a business trip to Ohio Tuesday.

Misses Lou Reid and Lula Watkins have returned from Clarksville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Moore, of Longview, were in the city yesterday.

Mrs. I. P. Gerhart returned to Clarksville Saturday after a visit to friends in the city.

Mrs. John Mink left yesterday for Newark, Del., where she will make her home in the future.

Mrs. James H. Anderson returned from Hopkinsville Saturday, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Walker, who is still her guest.—Herald.

H. H. Abernathy, Y. G. C., will leave for Russellville and Adairville this morning to take steps towards organizing Knight's Pythian Lodges at those places.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Latham, of New York, arrived Wednesday night. Mr. Latham brought with him a costly present for each of the members of the Cemetery Improvement Committee. Mr. H. C. Gault received an elegant gold watch and chain, and Messrs. J. M. Howe and C. M. Latham were each given a beautiful diamond scarf-pin.

Exp. Alex Campbell left Wednesday for Eldorado, Kan., where he will engage in the boot and shoe business with his son. Exp. Campbell is one of our best and most highly respected citizens, who will be missed greatly from our midst. We part from him with much reluctance, but take pleasure in commending him to those with whom his lot may be cast, as an upright, honorable gentleman, and a good and useful citizen.

St. Valentine's Service.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Galtier did the honors of pious old St. Valentine's eve by giving a progressive euchre party at the residence of Mr. Nat Galtier on Seventh street. At the tables were Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Gant, Mr. and Mrs. Nat Galtier, Mrs. A. J. Dabney, Misses Sue B. Stiles, Mary Bell Mercer, Annie and Mamie Barbour, Mollie Martin and Mrs. Lizzie Dick; Messrs. Bryan Hopper, H. J. Stiles, Prentiss Mercer, Thos. Ryder, and John Ellis. The amusement was kept up to a late hour, when the ladies' prize, an elegant plush and satin valentine fan, was awarded to Miss Sue B. Stiles, and the gentlemen's prize, a beautiful hand-painted rose spray on a satin tablet to Prentiss Mercer. The guests departed reluctantly from the magic tables, fully persuaded that St. Valentine was the goodliest saint of the whole calendar.

Democratic Committee Meeting.

The Democratic Executive Committee of Christian county is hereby called to meet at the court house in Hopkinsville at 11 o'clock, Monday March 7th, for the transaction of important business. A full attendance in person or by proxy is desired.

Chas. M. SEAGRAM, Sec'y.

Mardi Gras Festivities.

The annual Mardi Gras parade and festivities will take place in New Orleans Feb. 22nd, and those who have never been on an occasion can go this year the reduced rate of $10.00 for round trip. Preparations are being made for a still grander display, and thousands of visitors will join in the glory of the Southern metropolis. Mobile also comes to the front with similar features of entertainment, for which reduced rates can be secured.

D. A. SMITHSON.

TODD COUNTY.

THURSDAY, Feb. 16.—The continued wet weather is giving the farmers a chance to finish stripping their tobacco.

The negro boy who was shot last week is still lying, though the ball is still in his head. This is a remarkable case and has excited a great deal of surprise among the medical fraternity.

Frank Walton's little child is very sick with brain fever at his home near Allensville. Dr. Dickinson, of this place, is the attending physician.

The performance given here Saturday night by the Georgia Minstrels was a complete sell. The hall was crowded and the friends made money. Should they come this way again in the future, they will meet with a warm and enthusiastic reception.

Our girl went back on this time and didn't send us any valentine. "It was ever thus, etc."

Rev. P. H. Lockett broke the bread of life to his flock at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening.

Miss Susie Russell, a beautiful brunette of Elton, visited Mrs. J. I. Russell on Main street, last week.

Mr. W. D. Boudien, of Montgomery county, Tenn., has bought a farm of Garrett Brockman near Zion church, and has become a citizen of our county.

Miss Lizzie Ware, of this city, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Walton, near Allensville.

Mr. Ed. O'Brien is reported very ill with blood poisoning at his home near Allensville. His physicians fear it will be necessary to take off one of his limbs to save his life. He was reported some better when last heard from.

Joel D. McPherson, of your city, spent a day or so here this week in the interest of Doran & Co.

Several of the children in the county and around town are afflicted with chicken-pox and measles.

Mr. W. D. White, an old Trenton boy, now of Kansas City, is back home on a visit to relatives and friends.

Mrs. G. M. Mims (nee Wilson) returned last week from a protracted visit to her sister in Florida.

Mr. George Poston, who lives with Mr. Clemens, seven miles south of this place, had the misfortune to lose his little child last Thursday.

J. T. Habbeth, P. E. Hixon, H. Rutherford and Dr. J. S. Dickinson are the incorporators of the Model Roller Milling Co., at this place. Fifty thousand dollars is the capital stock of the concern.

Mrs. O. E. Tandy and daughter, Maggie, of Winter Haven, Florida, are visiting friends and relatives near Fairview. Mrs. Tandy returned on account of her health, which is very much impaired.

S. A. Tobey, of Cincinnati, spent a day in town last week in the interest of the Champion Machine Co.

Our young folks gave a very pleasant and valentine party at the City Hall Monday night.

The staff of your city, came down on business last week.

S. A. Barnes, of Hixson, Mass., is a guest of the Willard Hotel.

Tom Epperson, one of the best drummers and fiddlers boys on earth, called on his trade last week.

Judge Frank Richardson, of Pennsylvania, made a flying trip here last week.

Holly Brown, of Nashville, has been seeing our people in the interest of his piano house. CHESTNUT.

Trouble at the Theatre.

The Uncle Tom's Cabin Company drew like a sticking plaster Tuesday night in the gallery and an immense crowd was jammed into that portion of the Opera House, being composed mostly of negroes. Just as the curtain went up Joe McLaughlin, a young coon who has frequently been mentioned in connection with the race for the penitentiary and who is well qualified for the place, took a position near the railing in front of the crowd with a cigar in his mouth and defied the house policeman T. T. McCamy who told him to take a seat. McCamy started to take him away by force and when McLaughlin showed slight promptly used his club on him. Quite a commotion was kicked up and another negro was seen to draw a pistol, but Constable Wiley and Policemen Emils and Rusby, who were in the auditorium further harm beyond a few knock-downs had been done. The negro who drew the pistol escaped recognition and was not arrested. The sight of a weapon in the crowded gallery caused almost a panic and many loud exclamations of terror from the women and the crowd made a frantic rush for the door, but the prompt action of the officers quickly restored order. McLaughlin was taken out and the curtain, which had been lowered, went up again and the play went ahead as if nothing had happened.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also of the Nervous and Urinary system, and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested his wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to the suffering fellow. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this remedy, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Send by mail by enclosing stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NORRIS, 100 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y.

All of the saloon licenses and all but one of the merchants' liquor licenses have expired in this city, but there are vague rumors that prohibition is not entirely prohibiting, and that those who know the ropes can still get all the liquor they want.

A Lady's Secret.

"I'd give a good deal if I had such a pure healthy skin as you have," said a lady to a friend. "Just look at mine, all spots and blotches, and rough as a gator." Tell me the secret of your success in always looking so well." "There is no secret about it was the reply. "Dr. Pierce's 'Golden Medical Discovery' cleansed my blood and when that was done, my skin, which was worse than yours, began to look smooth and healthy, as you see it now."

Look over your supply of job printing and see if you are not short of something, it so, bring your order around and get job that you will be proud of.

SOUTH CHRISTIAN.

PEE DEE, Feb. 14.—I will give you a few lines from this neck of the world, to let your readers know that we are still in the red. Pee Dee is a quiet place, our merchants have a very good trade, we have had some changes in this place since our last. Mr. Will Harrison, the hotel keeper, has left us and Mr. G. W. Allen, the popular peddler has moved to his house.

We have a lively little school here taught by Miss Florence McKnight a lady of brains and beauty. Mr. Bud Ford recites his lesson at night.

Pete Luttrell, our town beauty, is still at the old stand. By the way, Mr. Editor, Pete says he wishes you would tell that jall man to turn "Helen Lakeman" out of that jall. He don't believe she stole that bracelet. Pete says he would come up there and get her out himself, but he did not like the call's getting all of the milk the morning that Warren Stuart left home.

Gaud Henry, Jr., has brought his new wife home. We gladly welcome her to our midst. Murry extends his best wishes to you both.

Our little steam-winder had an accident the 13th inst. Cook Roach got his toe mashed, neither damages done so far as I have learned.

Mr. Hugh Miller, of this neighborhood, will take the steam-winder to-day for Clarksville. Perhaps from there he will go west to grow up with the country. Murry.
